RUSH CANADIAN SONGWRITERS HALL OF FAME INDUCTION
SUNDAY, MARCH 28TH 2010

Rush Songwriters Hall of Fame Induction

The Canadian Songwriting Hall of Fame honours and preserves Canada's rich songwriting heritage by honouring artists that have written songs that have entered into popular culture and been sustained for a significant period of time.

RUSH will be inducted into the Canadian Songwriters Hall of Fame on Sunday, March 28th, 2010 at the gala held at the Toronto Centre for the Arts.

The 5 RUSH songs entering the Hall of Fame are Tom Sawyer, The Spirit of Radio, Limelight, Closer to the Heart and Subdivisions. Which means Rush and their songs are joining the likes of Joni Mitchell "Big Yellow Taxi", Burton Cummings/Randy Bachman "American Woman", Leonard Cohen "Hallelujah". As part of the induction, bands influenced by Rush will be performing renditions of their hits. Alexisonfire will be taking on "Tom Sawyer", Primus frontman Les Claypool and his band will be playing "The Spirit Of Radio", and Jacob Moon will be performing "Subdivisions".

Needless to say, it's a great honour for the band and all 3 members of Rush will be in attendance on this special night.

As such, we'd like to ensure the Rush fans can join the band in being a part of this special occasion.

As an exclusive to Rush fans, a 20% discount will be accessible via a code through all Ticketmaster outlets as well as the Toronto Centre for the Arts box office.

Prices are $95 and $75 and the promo code is SONGS.
